

myTrades Microsoft Store Privacy Policy

The App communicates with a Backend server via HTTP. The backend stores the following information in a database:

- Username (via ASP.NET identity management – no plain data is stored in the database)
- Monitors set up by the user
- Notifications triggered by the system
- The registration and last login data for every user

No personal information is stored by the system.

2017.01.01